

Round Robin: Teacher Page

Texts to be used around the classroom for centers. Cut up text and leave one at each center. Mix them up, so students can put them in sequence order at the end of the Round Robin.

Text 1	Tired and bewildered, Hanover Humphries got off the train in New York City to begin his new life.
Text 2	Instead of asking for help to find his new apartment that overlooks Time Square, Hanover Humphries got lost and wound up at the Empire State Building.
Text 3	With a look of desperation, Hanover Humphries sat down on a bench outside of the Empire State Building, when all of the sudden an old man wearing a trench coat pushing a shopping cart that was overflowing with odd objects appeared at his side.
Text 4	Feeling scared, Hanover Humphries decided that we was going to ever so nicely get up from his seat and walk away quickly, but the old man in the trench coat grabbed his arm to stop him.
Text 5	No words were exchanged between Hanover Humphries and the old man in the trench coat who grabbed his arm; Instead, the old man in the trench coat provided Hanover Humphries with a map of the Big Apple, his new home.
Text 6	Feeling embarrassed by his quick judgment upon the old man in the trench coat, Hanover Humphries thanked the man for his help, took him out to dinner where they talked about their life's travels, and upon leaving the restaurant, Hanover Humphries, used the map to find his new home, but not until he offered the man in the trench coat a job at his Veteran's Firm.
